MEMORANDUM

February 19, 1964

TO: Mr. J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel

FROM: Leon D. Hubert, Jr.

SUBJECT: Comments on J. Edgar Hoover's letter of February 12, 1964, with enclosed affidavits.

Aside from that any of us think of the rumor which these documents attempt to refute, the documents do not constitute a complete refutation. They purport to blackout the rumor, insofar as Dallas, New Orleans and San Francisco are concerned. (I assume that Dallas is with the Dallas office; all others are identified as to their affiliation.)

Of course, Mr. Hoover's affidavit of February 6 covers his [illegible] but it can only do that. What about an affidavit of the [illegible] of the Domestic Division at Headquarters FBI, Washington? He could know this is or is not an informant; and also who was paid. Also, let it be noted that payment in money is not the only way to engage an informant. I do not think there is any chicanery here; but for the sake of a perfect record refuting the rumor, I make these comments. I would think the FBI would be interested in a refutation record, regardless even to my comments.
